Your FAFSA needs to be signed.

We recently received a transmission of your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). It was not processed because it was missing one or more signatures. We are unable to process any federal student financial aid until your FAFSA is signed.

To update your FAFSA with a signature, do one of the following:

Go to www.fafsa.ed.gov.

- Click on "Check Status of a Submitted FAFSA."
- Follow the on-screen instructions to either sign the FAFSA with a Signature Page that you mail to the U.S. Department of Education, or sign the FAFSA with a PIN.*
If you are providing an on-line signature for a parent, you must use the parent's PIN.*

*If you or your parent does not have a PIN or you can't remember it, go to www.pin.ed.gov and follow the instructions to request a new or duplicate PIN.

- OR -

Read, sign, date, and return this form to our office. We will update your 2009-2010 FAFSA with your signature for you.

IMPORTANT: Original signatures are required on this form; faxed copies are not acceptable.

If you are the student, by signing this form you certify that you (1) will use federal and/or state student financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education, (2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it, (4) will notify your school if you default on a federal student loan and (5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by signing this form you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify the accuracy of your completed form. This information may include U.S. or state income tax forms that you filed or are required to file. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on this application with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you sign any document related to the federal student aid programs electronically using a Personal Identification Number (PIN), you certify that you are the person identified by the PIN and have not disclosed the PIN to anyone else. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.
